

Centerway Square

2019 Reservation Policies and Rules

The use of Centerway Square is intended for not-for-profit activities deemed to benefit the community (at the discretion of Corning's Gaffer District and the City of Corning). It is a public square and the general public is always welcome, however your reservation would guarantee that no other event would be scheduled on your approved date and is required to use the stage. Event dates will not be approved if they are within 15 days of a scheduled Gaffer District event.

Centerway Square is available from June 1st – November 1st (dates other than these will require special consideration). Reservations are limited to no more than one day within a thirty-day period.

Persons reserving Centerway Square must be at least 21 years of age.

Paperwork must be SUBMITTED a minimum of 45 (business) DAYS PRIOR to the event date. (Including reservation form, insurance certificate and payment)

Disorderly behavior AND public profanity is not allowed. Music must be approved by Corning's Gaffer District to be in compliance for use in a public space.

Events, activities and performances in Centerway Square must start after 8am and end by 9:00 pm.

Use of Centerway Square may be denied due to past non-compliant history.

The following policies and rules will apply to use of Centerway Square:

Access:

All sidewalks, alley and roadway access to Centerway Square must not be blocked. There is no parking in the alley or next to the clock tower. You are permitted to load/unload, but must move your vehicle as soon as it is loaded/unloaded.

Alcohol:

Alcohol is not allowed without a special permit, city approval and accompanying liquor liability insurance naming the City of Corning and Corning's Gaffer District as additionally insured.

Decoration & Banners, Etc.:

Decorations and banners can be displayed only during the event and must be placed without bolting, screwing, nailing or using damaging adhesives. All decorations, banners, etc. must be completely removed immediately following the event. Confetti or confetti-like materials are not allowed. The entire area must be left in its original condition. All fixtures in the square cannot be moved or altered in any way. Stakes or other objects cannot be placed into or between the bricks. No burning of candles (wax damages bricks)

Solicitations, Registration Monies and Peddling/Vending:

City of Corning ordinance section 158 –9b prohibits vending of food, beverage or items for commercial purposes. NO solicitations, registration monies or peddling/vending (e.g., cd's, t-shirts, bumper stickers, etc.) is allowed without approval of an Event Application in addition to this form. If your event requires an Event Application, that as to be submitted on your behalf by Corning's Gaffer District to City Hall 90 days prior to the event, as it needs to be scheduled and approved by City Council.

Electrical & Lighting System:

The Rotary Stage in Centerway Square is equipped with a permanent electrical & clear lighting system. This may be available for your use depending on staff availability.

Garbage/Trash:

All groups must pay a $40 garbage deposit to Corning's Gaffer District. All waste must be collected and removed by the group. The deposit will be returned upon inspection of Centerway Square following the event or activity. Glass containers or candles are not allowed.

Insurance:

A current certificate of insurance is required for Corning's Gaffer District and City of Corning showing amount of $1,000,000 minimum general aggregate liability coverage and $1,000,000 minimum per occurrence, as well as naming Corning's Gaffer District and the City of Corning as additional insureds.

Publicity:

All organizations using Centerway Square are responsible for their own publicity. State & local laws prohibit publicity of your event on City of Corning property. You can distribute information about your event to businesses that agree to hang your poster/flyer.

Restrooms:

Restrooms are available in the Information Center and at the Centerway Parking Garage during their scheduled open hours. Depending on the time of your event, you might need to make arrangements with Corning's Gaffer District to have the garage restrooms open or arrange for rental portable toilets.

Security:

If required, security or off-duty police must be provided at cost to the renter. Arrangements for security can be made by contacting Corning's Gaffer District.

Signage:

NO WIRE/CARDBOARD SIGNAGE IS ALLOWED IN THE SQUARE, PARK OR ON CITY STREETS OR CITY PROPERTY unless a special Event Application has been submitted and approved by City Hall. In addition, all city signage code regulations must be met. Sandwich board (a-frame type) signs are allowed in the square. If you have any questions, please contact the Gaffer District or City of Corning Codes Department.

Sound System:

For speaking engagements, the Rotary Stage in Centerway Square is equipped with a permanent sound system (rates and availability may vary). Rental sound systems available from Marich Music. The cost of operation for a sound system is the sole responsibility of the renter. Bands are required to bring their own sound system. Any amplified sound must be 85 decibels or below. Only rehearsed or scheduled performances are allowed. Practice or jam sessions are not allowed.

Vehicles:

Display or promotional vehicles may only be parked with proper brick protection and by the approval of Corning's Gaffer District.

Walks:

Any walk utilizing sidewalks within the Gaffer District within 15 days of another walk held in the Gaffer District will require special consideration. This is to minimize the impact such walks have on the traffic to businesses within the district. All walks must be completed by 11 am (majority of the walkers off the sidewalks) as to not interfere with commerce. Organized runs cannot take place on the sidewalks – it is too dangerous.
